

MontaioneMtbTrailArea.com was created thanks to the passion for cycling - especially for mountain biking - of its contributors. For this reason, the owners and contributors of this site, while doing everything possible to maintain the highest accuracy and reliability of the information, do not accept any responsibility concerning errors, omissions, accuracy of gps paths, event dates, addresses of accommodations and restaurants, and any other information contained on this map.

For the above reason, we are happy to share the tracks with you, hoping that you can have fun in our territory, but we won't be responsible for the use that you are going to do, as no one has forced you to walk or ride on this track.

From the Montaione's roundabout (at the junction with the road leading to San Vivaldo) go up towards San Gimignano. After cycling for about 2 km, we pass in front of the remains of an ancient Roman cistern and turn right along some vineyards.

Here, it is worth stopping a moment to admire a breathtaking view that sweeps from the Valdelsa to Monte Morello, on whose slopes is the city of Florence. We continue following an amusing "S" single trail that will take us to the "Egola" river.

After having crossed the river "Egola" you enter, turning right, on "Via Tre Ponti" to return to Montaione.
