Starting from San Vivaldo, from the parking lot of the "Jerusalem of Tuscany" we climb up on asphalt road "Via Ecce Homo". After just over 1 km, take the path on the right. From here, passing through "Pian delle Querce" we go down in single trail until we get to the village of "Iano" and we turn right onto a paved road. After about 100 meters, we take the path on the left following the signs for the small cemetery of "Iano". From here, following the path - all on dirt road - we will reach the valley and then we climb up to "Vignale" and go down again in the opposite valley. We will then go up until we reach the asphalt road that will take us to "Castelfalfi". After visiting this ancient medieval village with its castle and the splendid Church of San Floriano, the route continues to take us into the valley of the "Carfalo" stream. Passing next to the lake of "Tonda" we will climb up to the homonymous and characteristic village of "Tonda". Continuing to ride on the ridges of these hills, we reach "Castellare" and take "Via Cerroni". From here, if we still have breath and energy, before returning to San Vivaldo we can ride the single trails of the "Corbezzolaio" wood.
